DARK MOON ZINE 01

Welcome to the first issue of the Dark Moon Zine (DMZ).

Recently I channeled a tarot deck of 78 illustrated cards, called the Dark Moon Tarot (DMT). I am now working on the accompanying booklet for this deck. Each tarot card will have a corresponding hand drawn page of word art representing its meaning. Over the next few issues I will release pages from the booklet, starting with the seven cards that you can follow the High Priestess tend to create but it came through

THIS MONTH'S SPREAD

Imagine if you will, a 7 card spread.

The High Priestess asks us to look into the mystery. What powers can you tap into that exist beyond the rational and physical? What magical thinking could you submit to?

Now, follow The Hermit away into the dark recesses of mind.
Look for your ignorance and consider, what light can you shine into that darkness? Can you take some time to be introspective?

The 2 of cups, a card about beautiful union of two energies and the 5 of cups, a card about loss. Together represent the disillusionment of something. Grieve what you've lost. Look to magical thinking and retreating like the hermit for solace. The only way is through.

The 6 of wands represents the victory of a champion who has navigated the darkness of loss and grief. They are supported by an adoring crowd. We are both the hero and the crowd at times. Is there something you can be proud of? Is there something you can cheer on in yourself? Perhaps there is someone (or thing) you can be grateful for.

The 4 of coins (pentacles) invites us to consider how we are holding our material energies. Our wealth and our physical body. It might be asking us to protect our precious energy.

Finally the 9 of swords warns for night terrors. Sleeplessness and anxiety. You're on your own now and will have to soothe yourself. What can you do to wake up from terror?

THE FOOL'S JOURNEY Part 1

This story starts with you, the fool. A fool. At a moment in your life when, in ignorance, you step off a cliff into the unknown. You'll be the fool only, a handful of times in this one life. Cherish the fall.

The fool on their journey will encounter a number of archetypal characters and situations that will blow the fool's mind. The terrible gift of learning the hard way. Every fool and every journey will be different. This is only one way of understanding. Don't forget, we live in a multi layered reality. Worlds within worlds within worlds.

First we meet the The Magician who introduces us to stuff.
Matter, the material reality of our current situation. The airy thoughts of the swords, the passionate fire of the wands, the cups filled to the brim with emotion, and the earthly body of the coins. All this material we find within and around us. It is us and we are it. Over here or over there it continues to be what it is, until it changes into something else. Still matter, only in a different vibration or configuration.

H All fine and good until The High Priestess arrives to complicate things. She pulls back the veil of material reality and shows us something beyond it. The side that can't be seen. The metaphysical properties of reality. The spirit in the mechanism. The you that exists beyond the cells, chemistry, molecules, atoms, and quarks that slap and fart around.

With the two sides of reality established we meet The Empress. She is pregnant with possibility. The weaver who pulls the threads of the immaterial world into those of the material. She births thinking feeling flesh and bone, encourages seeds to grow into fruiting trees. She nurtures matter into life, builds without effort, makes without force.

going to be different than another person's perspective. All things, every atom and quantum, eliphant and mosquito, has its own perspective. Sometimes multiple perspectives lock in one subjective experience. You may be fooled into thinking that your tiny little slice of under-stand-ing is more correct, ratio-nal, reasonable, or right than any other, but it's not. Each thought each has its own validity, way of experiencing is valid.

Some Magic doesn't belong to you. There are ways of knowing, debties, linneages, and practical uses that aren't yours to take and private property and room for you to own something too. Be- undestand and beware of people who will tell you that magic sits behind a gate they have the key to.

Magic is everything it claims to be and more. There is no right definition, right way, or contradictions. We exist in worlds on top of worlds inside worlds at once. All things happening in worlds outside, you already know this to be true, your perspective is

HOW MAGIC WORKS LESSON 0

In this series I will explain how I understand magic. Beware for this is a farce and a lie, it's a half truth, it's how the world works and a work of pure fiction. It's not to be trusted and it is the sacred word.

Magic is all around you, flowing through you, it is you and it becomes you and it unravels you. It is present in the grandeur of nature and in the stinking hot trash muck of the city. It is wielded by everyone. It informs and impacts everything from energy healing to international copywrite law. It is dressed up in complicated costumes and it is as pedestrian as nudity. It is present in the gaudy aesthetics of new age "healers" and in the sterile material rationality of "skeptical" YouTubers.

Magic is self evident. You already have access and birthright to wield and manipulate magic. It's already inside you. There is no course, no shamanic ritual, no right of passage, no gift, and no trial necessary to gain it. It is the heart beating in your chest, all you have to do is notice it. Take a moment to try and notice your beating heart, we both know it's there, but can you sense it?
